

Strategic Equity Allocation Trust ("S.E.A.T.") SERIES 20

UNIT INVESTMENT TRUSTS

Investment Objective and Principal Investment Strategy

The Strategic Equity Allocation Trust ("S.E.A.T."), Series 20 ("Trust") seeks to maximize total return through investing in U.S.-listed stocks of large-capitalization, mid-capitalization and small-capitalization ("multi-cap") companies. The Trust includes stocks of companies that the Sponsor believes are well positioned to meet the Trust's investment objective. The Trust includes large-capitalization, mid-capitalization and small-capitalization stocks. Within each of these capitalization ranges, the Trust contains stocks from both the value and growth investment styles, in approximately equal proportions. The portfolio provides a high level of diversification by selecting stocks from 10 of the sectors of the economy as defined by Global Industry Classification Standards ("GICS") in weights that approximate the Russell 3000® Index, a broad-market, multi-cap index of U.S.-listed securities.

INDEX DEFINITION

The Russell 3000® Index offers investors access to the broad U.S. equity universe representing approximately 98% of the U. S. market. The Russell 3000® is constructed to provide a comprehensive, unbiased, and stable barometer of the broad market and is completely reconstituted annually to ensure new and growing equities are reflected.

Security Selection

The Sponsor selects companies that it believes are core holdings of a well-diversified, multi-cap portfolio. To select the portfolio the Sponsor follows a disciplined process which includes both quantitative screening and qualitative analysis.

The Sponsor begins with the companies currently in the Russell 3000® Index and separates these 3,000 companies into sixty groups based on capitalization, style and GICS sector. The Sponsor then reduces the 3,000 companies to approximately 500 by performing quantitative screening based primarily on factors such as, but not limited to valuation, growth, and profitability.

The Sponsor then reduces the 500 companies to 102 by performing qualitative analysis based on factors such as, but not limited to balance sheet, valuation, growth and profitability.

For the final step the Sponsor weights the selected stocks so that the portfolio has a capitalization, style, and sector representation that closely resembles that of the Russell 3000® Index.

RISK CONSIDERATIONS As with all investments, you may lose some or all of your investment in the Trust. No assurance can be given that the Trust’s investment objective will be achieved. The Trust also might not perform as well as you expect. This can happen for reasons such as these: Stock prices can be volatile. The value of your investment may fall over time. Market value fluctuates in response to various factors. These can include stock market movements, purchases or sales of securities by the Trust, government policies, litigation, and changes in interest rates, inflation, the financial condition of the securities’ issuer or even perceptions of the issuer. Units of the Trust are not deposits of any bank and are not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or any other government agency. Due to the current state of the economy, the value of the securities held by the Trust may be subject to steep declines or increased volatility due to changes in performance or perception of the issuers. In the last year, economic activity has declined across all sectors of the economy, and the United States is experiencing increased unemployment. The current economic crisis has affected the global economy with European and Asian markets also suffering historic losses. Extraordinary steps have been taken by the governments of several leading economic countries to combat the economic crisis; however, the impact of these measures is not yet known and cannot be predicted. The Trust invests in stocks issued by small-capitalization and mid-capitalization companies. These stocks customarily involve more investment risk than stocks of large-capitalization companies. Small-capitalization and mid-capitalization companies may have limited product lines, markets or financial resources and may be vulnerable to adverse general market or economic developments. The Trust invests in U.S.-listed foreign securities. The Trust’s investment in U.S.-listed foreign securities presents additional risk. Securities of foreign issuers present risks beyond those of domestic securities. More specifically, foreign risk is the risk that foreign securities will be more volatile than U.S. securities due to such factors as adverse economic, currency, political, social or regulatory developments in a country, including government seizure of assets, excessive taxation, limitations on the use or transfer of assets, the lack of liquidity or regulatory controls with respect to certain industries or differing legal and/or accounting standards. Share prices or dividend rates on the securities in the Trust may decline during the life of the Trust. There is no guarantee that the issuers of the securities will declare dividends in the future and, if declared, whether they will remain at current levels or increase over time. The Sponsor does not actively manage the portfolio. The Trust will generally hold, and may continue to buy, the same securities even though a security’s outlook, market value or yield may have changed. Inflation may lead to a decrease in the value of assets or income from investments. Please see the Trust prospectus for more complete risk information.

UITs are fixed and not actively managed. An investment in this fixed portfolio should be made with an understanding of the risks involved with owning various types of investments. Industry predictions may not materialize and securities selected for the Trust may not participate in overall industry growth, if any. There is no guarantee that the portfolio will achieve its investment objective. Units, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original purchase price.

This UIT is part of a long-term strategy, and investors should consider their ability to invest in successive portfolios, if available, at the applicable sales charge. There are tax consequences associated with an investment from one series to the next. Investors should consult their tax advisor to determine tax consequences associated with an investment from one portfolio to the next. Units of the portfolio may be well suited for purchase by Individual Retirement Accounts or other qualified retirement plans. Consult an attorney or tax advisor regarding tax consequences associated with the purchase of units. Claymore Securities, Inc. does not offer tax advice.

SALES CHARGES

Sales Charge (“S/C”) is based on a $10 per unit offering price.

	Amount Per Unit	Max Per Unit %
Up-front S/C	$0.100	1.00%
Year One Deferred S/C	$0.145	1.45%
Creation and Development (“C&D”) Fee	$0.050	0.50%
Total S/C	$0.295	2.95%

The deferred sales charge (“DSC”) will be deducted in monthly installments on the last business day commencing January 2010 and ending March 2010. If units are redeemed prior to the DSC period, the entire DSC will be collected.

For unit prices other than $10, percentages of initial sales charge, C&D fees, and deferred sales charges will vary. Early redemption of units will still cause payment of the deferred sales charge.
